

The application and registration form for the Spring term for ClearLine applicants should be available in October. If you are interested in possibly applying as a non-degree seeking ClearLine student for the Spring term, please e-mail ClearLine@clearwater.edu to let us know of your interest, and you will be notified as soon as the application is available.